

Join the Trustee Facebook Group

We invite you to join the Trustee Facebook Group. If you are a current Facebook member, follow these steps to join the community:

1. Log in to Facebook and search for "Trusted Trustee" in the blue bar at the top of the page. This is the name of the University of Nebraska Foundation Trustees page administrator.

2. Find the Trusted Trustee listing under "People." Please click on "add friend" button near the top right of the page. We chose to use our page administrator to add you to the Trustee Facebook Group to eliminate sharing your name or email address with Facebook.

3. Within 48 hours, the University of Nebraska Foundation will add you as a member of the Trustee Facebook Group. You will receive a Facebook notification to join the group. Only University of Nebraska Foundation Trustees will be added as members of this group. Requests from others who are not trustees will not be accepted.
4. To complete the process, accept the notification to join the Trustee Facebook Group, which you'll see in the top right corner of your Facebook page.

If you are not on Facebook, you are under no obligation to join the Trustee Facebook group. The University of Nebraska Foundation will continue to communicate with trustees through a variety of means. However, if you would like to participate in the Trustee Facebook Group and you are not already on Facebook — you will need to set up a Facebook account. View this article for step-by-step instructions to set up a Facebook account. Then follow the directions above to join the Trustee Facebook Group.
